

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision requiring their stations to show "Stolen Honor" before the election does not serve the public interest and is an example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. If Sinclair shows "Stolen Honor" they should be required to show the opposing side. If Sinclair requires their stations to show a one sided documentary then they should also show Going Upriver or Fahrenheit 911.

Sinclair's outrageous actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
